CITY OF DES MOINES OFFICE OF THE CITY MANAGER	Number:	21-506	Meeting:	November 15, 2021
	Agenda Item:	44, 45, & 46	Roll Call:	21-1768
	Submitted by:	Malcolm Hankins, Assistant City Manager

AGENDA HEADING:

- 1) Amending Chapter two of the City Code adding Sections 2-71 and 2-1060 relating to cultural competency training for members of the council and members of boards and commissions.
- 2) Amending Sections 62-1, 62-42, 62-72, 62-103, 62-137, and adding Sections 62-136.1, Article VII, Sections 62-172, 62-173, and Article VII, Section 62-191, relating to strengthening the Human Rights Ordinance.
- 3) Adding Section 70-66.1, relating to false reports to or communications with public safety entities based on bias.

SYNOPSIS:

Recommend approval of the staff recommendation amending the City Ordinance to require cultural competency training for members of boards and commissions and the City Council, strengthening the Human Rights Ordinance by adding protections against discrimination in commercial and residential tenancy, education, credit, employment, and adding on option for voluntary mediation within the department. Adding a prohibition of false reports to police based on bias. The Des Moines Civil and Human Rights Commission recommended these changes as part of the Bridging the Gap initiative.

FISCAL IMPACT: NONE

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- "Bridging the Gap is a community-centered solution-focused effort to address community issues and remove systemic barriers, so that all Des Moines residents can achieve their full potential." The highly engaged effort involved discussions and input from community members, business leaders, service providers and local and state government representatives.
 Community dialogues involved almost 300 Des Moines residents, and nearly 500 residents participate in the topic prioritization process.
- At the June 11, 2020, Des Moines City Council and Des Moines Civil and Human Rights Commission (DMCHRC) annual Joint Meeting, the DMCHRC made the following 13 recommendations. The Des Moines City Council directed the City Manager to act on each recommendation.
