I was appointed to Sister City Commission by council for a five year term commencing April 28th 2006 and expiring April 28, 2011. With 2014 approaching, you can see I have served two extra years beyond my first term.

It has been my pleasure to serve on the Sister City Commission for the past 7 years. I have decided that my term expiration date is overdue and it is my time to go off the board to allow new energetic members to step up to the plate. At this point, I feel good about going off the board. I feel Sister City is healthier than when I first came aboard. I just completed working on a marketing campaign for Sister City along with Martha Nelson. Sister City now has a specific mission statement, a logo, a business card, and a brochure. I am excited and pleased with the new president, Darlene Blake, who I feel is going to grow the commission. She will be moving forward with a board that is stronger and more energetic than ever.

Thank you so much for the opportunity to serve all of you on this board. I was honored to be asked to serve by Councilwoman Christine Hensely and hope that I met your expectations.

Best Regards,

Soozie McBroom
