Carolyn,

The pleasure has been all ours as you have been an outstanding board member. The process starts with notify the City Clerk, Diane Rauh who is on copy as well as the council member that appointed you, Mr. Mahaffey who is also on copy.

I also suggest you talk to chair-person Susan Noland of the PR Board to tell her. She does not use email, so her number is [REDACTED]

Again, it is bittersweet for our team to see you leave as it sounds like you have found a great new job and yet another beautiful home. If you ever have any questions or need anything we would be glad to assist, so please do not hesitate to contact us. Good luck on your next chapter in life and hopefully all of these life-changing events take place with little or no stress!

Subject: With regret, I need to resign from the Parks & Rec Board

Hi, Ben -

The Parks & Rec board meeting this coming Tuesday regretfully will be the last one I am able to attend. I will try and keep my explanation brief. The reasons are positive ones: we have purchased a small log cabin on an acreage west of Dallas Center from long-time friends of my family who just moved to Wesley Acres. We now are in the process of selling my beloved house of 25 years. In fact, the prospective buyers' home inspector is here as I write. We don't want the hassle of trying to own two places, so I am in the process of downsizing my vast collection of "stuff" by 2/3 - 3/4(!), and we will be moving this summer to the cabin. (Yes, we're working on that place, too!) I have been in publishing most of my career and will start working for the Dallas County Newspapers in Adel on June 2.

How's all that for being off the stress scale??

I honestly don't know to whom to submit my resignation, so I thought I would start with you. My experience on the Parks board confirms what I already knew: that we have AMAZING amenities in Des Moines, thanks to the City staff, donors, and volunteers. It has been an honor to serve.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Rogers
