Des Moines City Council

Des Moines, Iowa 50309

Dear Mayor Cownie and Council Members:

HOME, Inc has worked with the City of Des Moines on obtaining several vacant lots obtained by the City of Des Moines through the tax sale certificate process. HOME, Inc has built new affordable housing on the lots it has acquired that are compatible with the surrounding neighborhood and provide energy efficient sustainable housing for the new homeowner.

In 2014, HOME, Inc. identified the vacant lots as 1334 E. 13th and 2620 Cornell as potential lots for new construction of a single family house. The City of Des Moines proceeded with acquiring the tax sale certificate and sending notice to owners and lien holders that the city intended to take tax deed to the properties.

HOME, Inc. proposes to purchase the vacant lots from the City of Des Moines for the Fair Market Value of $6,000 each for construction of new single family housing. HOME, Inc. will meet with the neighborhood associations regarding the design of the house. HOME, Inc. is working closely with the East Bank Neighborhoods on scattered site housing and with the Union Park Neighborhood with its Birdland Developments.

By Roll Call 16-1828 on October 24, 2016 the City Council approved an allocation of Community Housing Development Organization Set-Aside funds from the City's HOME program for HOME, Inc.'s use in building housing. HOME, Inc. will use the CHDO set-a-side funds to ensure the houses are affordable.

Sincerely,

Pamela S. Carmichael,
Executive Director
