_____ City Clerk

Hi Joe,

15

After much deliberation, I have reached a decision about my continued involvement on HAB. For a long time, I felt as though we were accomplishing good things for the neighborhoods and looked forward to the monthly meetings. I haven't felt that way in a couple of years, due to the extreme leniency of several of the board members. Most of the cases receive lengthy extensions no matter how long they have already had to deal with problems or to what extent they are having a negative effect on the tenants and the neighborhood. On most cases, I will try to vote for the Staff's recommendation and end up being voted down. It is frustrating and futile to remain on the board. Tomorrow, Nov 10th, will be my last HAB meeting.

Thank you for placing your trust in me on this board. I will always value our friendship and working relationship.

Warmest Regards,

Carole Jones
